General Information

SANTA FE

One of the most unique and historic cities in the U.S., Santa Fe ( <http://www.sdct.itl.nist.gov/~ftp/l8/sc32wg2/2000/events/openforum/santafe.htm> ) is located in northern New Mexico at an elevation of 7,000 feet (2,100 meters) in the foothills of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains, with nearby peaks as high as 12,000 feet.

Santa Fe has a rich and varied history. Founded in 1607, it is the oldest capital city in America, and the oldest European community west of the Mississippi River. In recent years Santa Fe has become one of the premier tourist destinations in the U.S. It is a sophisticated city of 60,000 which offers 200 restaurants, 150 art galleries, 50 Native American jewelry shops, 13 major museums, and a world famous opera company. For more information about Santa Fe, click on the Santa Fe button in the left sidebar.

CLIMATE

In January the average high temperature in Santa Fe is 40F/4C and the average low is 19F/-7C. Snow is to be expected this time of the year, and world class skiing is available near Santa Fe. (<http://www.skisantafe.com/>).

CONFERENCE HEADQUARTERS

La Fonda Hotel, 100 East San Francisco Street, Santa Fe, NM 87501

Arrangements have been made with the La Fonda Hotel for the Open Forum and SC 32 meetings. To maximize opportunities for sharing information, informal discussions, and networking, participants are encouraged to stay at hotel. Also note that special arrangements have been made for ethernet (T-1 line) Internet connections in the conference office. Participants can choose to use direct ethernet connections from their laptops or from a bank of PCs that will be available.

A block of rooms has been reserved at the La Fonda Hotel, headquarters for this year's Open Forum & SC 32 meetings. Call La Fonda reservations at 1-800-523-5002 or 1-505-982-5511 from outside the U.S. and be sure to ask for the discounted "Open Forum & SC 32" conference rate of $78 for single occupancy rooms and $93 for double. Reservations can also be made over the Internet by clicking HERE

Reservations must be received by La Fonda Hotel no later than 12 p.m., December 17, 1999 in order to get the discounted conference rate. Reservation requests will be confirmed only if guaranteed with a valid credit card. A 72-hour notice (3 days before arrival date) of cancellation is required or your room will be billed directly to your credit card.

Check-in time is 3 p.m.; checkout time is 12 p.m.

INSURANCE

The organizers cannot accept responsibility for accidents, losses, and/or damages that may occur. Delegates are advised to obtain travel, medical, personal accident and luggage insurance in their home countries prior to departure.

Area Highlights

Palace of the Governors, Palace Avenue, Santa Fe, NM 87501
The oldest public building in the United States.

Georgia O'Keeffe Museum, 217 Johnson Street, Santa Fe, NM 87501
Well done and beautiful presentation of O'Keeffe's work.

St. Francis Cathedral, 231 Cathedral Place, Santa Fe, NM 87501
Romanesque-style cathedral, which is a rare departure from the Pueblo architecture.

Museum of Fine Arts, West Palace Avenue, Santa Fe, NM 87501
A Pueblo Revival-style structure completed in 1917—one of the best regional museums in the United States.

La Fonda Hotel, East San Francisco Street, Santa Fe, NM 87501
A must see experience. This landmark hotel was a gathering place for cowboys, traders, soldiers, and all the other frontier folk that frequented Santa Fe. It is known as the "The Inn at the End of the Trail."

Loretto Chapel, 211 Old Santa Fe Trail, Santa Fe, NM
A Romanesque church modeled after the Sainte-Chapelle chapel in Paris. The chapel is known for the "Miraculous Staircase."

Canyon Road - This is a real must. Lined with artists and shops famous around the world.
